What did you especially like about the course?

The deadlines were really useful in order to have a well prepared dissertation proposal in time.

It is great to get together and engage in discussions with others working in different areas

Getting detailed input on own work

Opportunity to discuss current research and state of the proposal

That we had the possibility to discuss our proposals with other students from our discipline. This was very helpful, especially because by now we new a little more about the others' tobics.

What could/should be improved?

Nothing!

Reviewer allocation could be improved (choosing people who have at least some knowledge on the topic, research area or method)

2nd presentation maybe a little bit later
